

(b) Accredited representatives of the offices named in § 602.205 of this part at their request, be given information pertinent to their official investigations of individual cases, and may examine such portions of the records and files as contain the information.

(c) Information concerning borrowers may be given for the confidential use of any Farm Credit System institution, or any Government agency, in contemplation of the extension of agricultural credit or the collection of loans.

(d) Credit information concerning any borrower may be given when such borrower consents thereto in writing.

(e) In litigation between a borrower (or that borrower's successor in interest) and the United States or a bank or association, any competent evidence may be introduced with respect to any relevant statements made orally or in writing by or to the borrower or that borrower's successor.

§ 602.220 Waiver of restrictions.

If it appears that justice would be served by releasing information in circumstances forbidden by § 602.215 of this part, the restrictions of that section may be waived as to a particular case by the Chairman of the Farm Credit Administration Board. A recommendation for such waiver may be submitted by any institution concerned. Any such recommendation from an association shall be submitted through the appropriate Farm Credit Bank, with the request that it be considered and forwarded to the Farm Credit Administration, if deemed advisable. Each such recommendation shall be supported by a statement of facts and approved by counsel for the forwarding bank. The recommendation should be addressed to the General Counsel, Farm Credit Administration.

Subpart B—Availability of Records of the Farm Credit Administration

§ 602.250 Official records of the Farm Credit Administration.

(a) The Farm Credit Administration shall, upon any request for records which reasonably describes them and is made in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, make the records available as promptly as practicable to any person, except exempt records, which include the following:

(1) Records specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;

(2) Records related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of the Farm Credit Administration, including matters which are for the guidance of agency personnel;

(3) Records which are specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;

(4) Commercial or financial information obtained from any person or organization and privileged or confidential;

(5) Inter-Agency or intra-Agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a private party in litigation in which the United States, as real party interest on behalf of the Farm Credit Administration, is a party, or from any Farm Credit System institution, including banks, associations, service organizations, the Funding Corporation, the Farm Credit System Assistance Board, or the Farm Credit System Financial Assistance Corporation, to a private party in litigation with such institution if such memorandums or letters are records of such institution;

(6) Personnel and similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(7) Records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information:

§ 602.260

(i) Could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings;

(ii) Would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;

(iii) Could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(iv) Could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source;

(v) Would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; or

(vi) Could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;

(8) Records of or related to examination, operation, reports of condition and performance, or reports of or related to Farm Credit institutions that are regulated and examined by the Farm Credit Administration that are prepared by, on behalf of, or for its use; except that reports to shareholders filed with the Farm Credit Administration pursuant to part 620 of this chapter and those items in reports of condition and performance filed with the Farm Credit Administration pursuant to part 621 of this chapter that are of essentially the same character as items disclosed in reports to shareholders filed with the Farm Credit Administration pursuant to part 620 of this chapter, shall be available to the public on request for a reasonable fee.

(b) Any reasonably segregable portion of a record shall be provided to any person requesting such record after deletion of the portions which are exempt under this section.

(c) This section does not authorize withholding of information or limit the availability of records to the public, except as specifically stated in this section. This section is not authority to withhold information from Congress.

§ 602.251 Current index.

The Farm Credit Administration will make available for public inspection and copying a current index to provide identifying information as to any matter required by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2)(C) to be made available or published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Because of the infrequent requests in the past for material required to be indexed, it is determined that the publication of the index in the FEDERAL REGISTER is unnecessary and impractical. However, the Farm Credit Administration will provide a copy of such index to a member of the public upon request therefor at a cost not in excess of the direct cost of duplication.

[40 FR 7339, Feb. 19, 1975]

§ 602.255 Identification of records requested.

A member of the public who requests records from the Farm Credit Administration shall provide a reasonable description of the records sought including, where possible, specific information as to dates, titles, and subject matter, so that such records may be located without undue search or inquiry. If a record is not identified by a reasonable description, the request therefor may be denied.

§ 602.260 Request for records.

Requests for records shall be in writing and addressed to the attention of the Freedom of Information Officer, Farm Credit Administration, 1501 Farm Credit Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102-5090. A request improperly addressed will be deemed not to have been received for purposes of the 20-day time period set forth in § 602.261(a) of this part until it is received, or would have
